

The Petrie-Flom Center is happy to announce the newest addition to our Advisory Board, David Tolley. David is a Partner at Latham & Watkins LLP and the chair of the Litigation & Trial Department for Latham's Boston office. David represents a variety of mission-driven and innovative health care organizations in their highest stakes matters, including government investigations and litigation. To learn more about David's work and the perspective he will bring to the Advisory Board, read our interview on Bill of Health.

The Petrie-Flom Center Advisory Board provides support and advice to current Center programs and assists in the development of new initiatives. We're excited to welcome David to the Board and look forward to our collaborations.

Interested in getting involved with the Center? Check out our opportunities page. One recent addition of note: we just announced a call for a new digital symposium, Build Back Better? Health, Disability, and the Future of Work Post-COVID, and are eager to read your submissions!

Promote Trust, Avoid Fraud: Lessons in Public Health Messaging from the Booster

Roll Out

The discrepancy between past messaging, which restricted access to boosters to select groups, and the current, broad recommendation has spawned two, related public health communications problems.
